Attorney for Defendant

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE COUNTY,
STATE OF UTAH, SALT LAKE CITY

OPPOSING PARTY,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GOOD CLIENT,

Defendant.

REQUEST TO SUBMIT FOR DECISION
RE: PROPOSED FINAL ORDER AND DECREE; AND MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Civil No. 123456789

Judge: Barry Lawrence
Commissioner: Kim Luhn

Defendant, by and through his counsel of record, hereby submits for decision his proposed “Final Order and Decree.”

The proposed “Final Order and Decree” was served on Plaintiff on August 10, 2018, and Plaintiff’s “Objection to the proposed Final Order and Decree” was filed on August 10, 2018, as well. Defendant’s “Opposition to Plaintiff’s Objection to the Proposed Final Order and Decree” was filed on August 13, 2018. The Court held a hearing on August 15, 2018, at which were present each of the above-named parties with their respective attorneys (Opposing Counsel for Plaintiff, and Saul Goodman for Defendant). During said hearing, the Court informed the parties, that the Court would be signing and entering the Final Order and Decree today, August 15, 2018.

On August 13, 2018, Defendant filed and served his “Verified Motion to Reconsider Prior Ruling Before a Final Judgment is Entered.” This motion bears upon issues to be addressed and resolved before the Court enters the final judgment in this matter. Defendant’s counsel brought the matter of said “Verified Motion to Reconsider Prior Ruling Before a Final Judgment is Entered” to the Court’s attention at the August 15th hearing (and during said hearing the Court acknowledged its awareness of the motion’s filing) and of the fact that under the rules of civil procedure, opposing counsel would ordinarily be given opportunity under the rules of civil procedure to respond to the motion.

If the Court intends to issue the Final Order and Decree today, the matter of the proposed “Final Order and Decree” is, therefore, now ripe for decision, as is the Defendant’s “Verified Motion to Reconsider Prior Ruling Before a Final Judgment is Entered.”

DATED August 15, 2018.
